ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce W. T. OWEN, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Herald gives Judge Owen good this week; but then, every one has a right to throw his own cats.

MURAT HALSTEAD, the veteran Cincinnati editor and author, is a candidate for Congress. May he win.

The vaults of the U. S. Treasury now contain $573,936,194 of gold.
How differently the Treasury reports read when Cleveland was President and Carlisle was Secretary of the Treasury.

The Herald is busy fighting Judge Owen that it forgot to mention that Judge John B. Wilson had been appointed a member, for Ohio county, of the Second Judicial Democratic Committee.

The race between Judges Guffy and Settle is causing very little excitement. One-sided contests seldom do. Judge Guffy's record on the bench will bring to his support the independent voters of the district and, with a Republican majority to start with, insure his election.

We acknowledge the receipt of a season ticket for self and lady to the Elk's Charity Carnival at Owensboro, September 22-27. The Kentucky editors who were so royally entertained by the Owensboro Elks in that city, during the Press meeting in July, will not hesitate to advise the public to expect good things of the approaching Carnival.

Our neighbor complains that Judge Guffy has belonged to too many political parties. This seems to be an objectionable record only when it applies to the other "fellow's" candidate.
The Herald's support of the Democratic candidate for county judge last year is an illustration. Funny, too, what a habit these sort of candidates have fallen into of being elected.

Our new office will be completed by the 10th of October. All those who want to pay up arrears while we are in the old building, must rush. In fact, we feel like encouraging them to do so, because we are going to have a great many things to move and if many of these old subscription accounts were paid up it would lighten the burden of moving.

The good citizens of Kentucky will not withhold their gratitude from Mr.
R. W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Evening Post, for his strenuous and persistent efforts to stop the brutal practice of prize fighting in the State.
If the conduct of men is largely determined by association, the heaviest responsibility falls upon the newspaper writer, who becomes the constant associate of the multitude, and that writer who fearlessly, yet sensibly, attempts the defense of public morals becomes a public benefactor.

This race for Circuit Judge in the Elizabethtown district is growing quite interesting between Judge T. R.
McBeath and Hon. Weed Chelf. The primary comes off the 20th of September. Judge McBeath is a candidate for his fifth term as Circuit Judge of the district. A gentleman from Grayson county, who is familiar with the situation says, Judge Mc-Beath will win easily. He says the people of the district recognize his ability and fairness and believe that his long experience fits him to execute the business of the office as no new official could.

"MAINE went hell-bent for Governor Kent," etc., was written a long time ago by a Democratic correspondent to his paper just after Kent had been elected Governor of the little Pine Tree State by a Republican majority never approached before.
The same impressive language would have described the situation up there Monday night, except no election for Governor was held. The entire Republican Congressional ticket was elected by majorities aggregating 25,000. The Republicans elected four-fifths of the members of the lower State house, and all the State Senators but one. They seem to like Hoover's administration up in New England.

MIXING THINGS.

Because we said last week that the Herald was getting its editorials mixed, it accuses us of mixing that its editor had been mixing other things. We beg to assure our dear brother that we never dreamed of anything of the kind.

Really, the only two times we ever saw the Herald man doing anything akin to what he hints at was on a recent visit to a neighboring city, when the two Hartford editors did it together. Even then we did no mixing; in fact, there were several fellows there whose special job was to mix it for us; and the mint was excellent, too.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

The Democratic committee of this Judicial district met in July and called a primary election to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge, and Commonwealth's Attorney, for November 4, a regular election day, and for the avowed purpose of helping Judge Settle's candidacy for Judge of the Court of Appeals. Later the Republicans asked the Court of Appeals to enjoin the Democrats from interfering with a regular election by a primary. While this cause, was pending the Democratic Judicial Committee, believing the injunction would be granted, met again, withdrew the call for a primary on the date of November 4, and issued a call for November 12, assigning as a reason for the change that the extra booths, etc., required on the regular election day, would make it too expensive to the candidates to hold it on that date.

The injunction failed before the Court of Appeals and within three days thereafter a call was issued for another meeting of the committee, which met in Owensboro Monday and again fixed upon November 4, for holding the primary.

It will be interesting to observe how long the honest voters of the district will tolerate this hypocritical juggery upon the part of the Democratic politicians.

The writer, from the beginning, opposed bringing the injunction suit. He believed and believes it is easier to defeat an army which must stop in the heat of battle to fight each other than to defeat a united host. Or rather that, that army is not "invincible" that must fight two battles at the same time. But it is the avowed purpose, and vacillating conduct of the Democratic committee and candidates of this Judicial district that should disgust decent Democrats, and arouse Republicans to the best efforts of their lives to win.

WHY SO IMPORTANT?

Judge Guffy's election would mean much more to the Democratic party in Kentucky in all questions having a legal aspect.
—Hartford Herald.

What particular misfortune would befall the Democratic party in the way of questions having a legal aspect? Will you refer to a single judicial decision of Judge Guffy's in his seven years on the supreme bench, in which he was not just and fair to the Democrats? Could he not, by the very character of decision you insinuate he would make, have kept W. S. Taylor in the office (which he was fairly elected) was he not brave enough and fair enough to withstand a hurricane of abuse from thousands of influential members of his party, who, frenzied by the outrageous theft of the state offices by the Democrats, were demanding of him to meet brute force in kind? Was he not great enough to shout above the din of the maddest tempest of outraged men, "It is better that the mob should rule for a day than dishonor engulf the highest court in the Commonwealth?" The Herald continues: Judge Settle's election will mean a Democratic Court of Appeals so far as the political aspect goes, and that is something more much. It is almost like the turn of a card, the turn of a coin—the election of one man will do it.

The above is a problem. It means that the Democratic party in Kentucky can live only by a court that can be relied on to give partial decisions in its favor. "The election of one man will do it." This sentence is certainly pregnant with meaning when viewed in the light of recent decisions of Democratic courts in Kentucky. Since the Herald does not complain that the "Democratic" party has suffered at the hands of the present Republican Court of Appeals, and since it magnifies the advantages to its party of making that court Democratic it would be unfair for the public to retain Judge Guffy on the appellate bench.

LIFE SENTENCE

For Lucien Arnold in Daviess Circuit Court.

Lucien Arnold was given a life sentence in the Daviess Circuit Court Monday for the murder of Luther Robinson at Powers, Daviess county, two years ago.

On the day of the Goebel-Hardin-Stone primary, June 17, 1900, Lucien and Hugh Arnold, brothers, and a number of other Republicans, were hought up to Owensboro to vote for Goebel, and upon their return to Powers they were proceeded to raise trouble with everybody. Constable Frank Head undertook to arrest them, but the crowd was too big for him and he summoned Luther Robinson to help him make the arrest. In his effort to do his duty as a peace officer, Robinson was killed by the Arnold boys, one of them entirely alone. The Arnold boys were arrested and brought to the Owensboro jail where Lucien has been confined ever since.

Nearly a year ago they were tried jointly and given 21 years in the penitentiary, but on account of the joint verdict being illegal, the trial was set aside. At a later term Hugh Arnold was given a second trial and sent up for life, and a jury Monday gave Lucien a life sentence.

LITTLE BEN

A Forty Ton Steamer Enters Hartford and Evansville Trade.

Monday noon the steamer Little Ben arrived at the Hartford wharf loaded to the guard with freight for Hartford merchants.

The steamer was built and is owned by her Captain, Dr. Foreman, of Louisville, who is a veteran Ohio river navigator.

She came to Hartford with freight from Louisville, but will run regularly now between Hartford and Evansville, making three trips a week.

There is plenty of work here if our merchants will give the boat the business they should give it, and it will result in a great saving in freights to our merchants, and consequently in prices to their customers.

Even before most of our merchants had learned that the steamer was coming into this trade they received notice from the railroad that freight would be laid down at Hartford at Beaver Dam's rates.

One of our merchants said, upon the arrival of the boat, "I thought something was going to drop when I received notice yesterday of a reduction of railroad rates."

Securing the steamer for Rough river is wholly due to the enterprise of Col. C. M. Barnett, who is always on the lookout for something to help his home town and county.

May the waves of Rough river wash the hull of the Little Ben for many moons.

Safe Blowers.

Robbers made an attempt to rob the Bank of Lewisburg, Monday night, but were detected before they had reached the cash. The robbers effected an entrance to the building and blew open the safe, but the report of the explosion alarmed the citizens sleeping nearby, who came upon the scene and frightened them away before they secured the booty. They have not been captured.

ic constipation may be cured without

It is risking something to ask the public to place a piece of fiction along side of Poe's best work. The Editor of The Cosmopolitan ventures this in the following note: "One does not often find a story which seems to come in the classification of Edgar Allan Poe's best work. Yet one might be tempted to ask such a place for 'The Canonic Curse' which Arthur E. Mc-Farlane contributes to The Cosmopolitan for September."

Mark Twain's Cousin,

G. C. Clemens, of Topeka, Kan., the noted constitutional lawyer, who hears so striking a resemblance to Mark Twain, (Samuel B.
Clemens) that he is frequently taken for the original Mark.

G. C. Clemens, is a man of deep intellect and wide experience. He is considered one of the foremost lawyers in this country. In recent letters to the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Mr. Clemens says: "I have frequently taken the original Mark, and I have been thoroughly satisfied that Dr. Miles' Nerve contains true merit, and is an excellent remedy for what it is recommended."

Mr. Norman Waltrip, Sup. Pres. Bankers' Fraternal Society, Chicago, says:
"Dr. Miles' Pain Pills are invaluable for headache and all pains. I had been a great sufferer from tacks by taking a pill when the symptoms first appear."

WALLACE, THE MAN-EATER

World-Famous Lion, Which Will Be Here Shortly.

Everybody in Christendom has heard and read about Wallace, the fierce man-eating lion which escaped from his cage in New York some few years ago and held the city in a reign of terror for sixty hours, when he was finally found in a stable where he had killed and partly devoured a horse.

The authorities wanted to shoot him, but the daring Captain Boccacio, of the Bostock-Perall force of trainers, begged to be allowed to attempt his capture, and finally succeeded by means of rope lassoes. Three weeks later he entered his cage in an attempt to train him, and was torn to pieces. Since then three other trainers have perished beneath his mighty paws. It is said he killed four men before he was brought to this country.

He is, without question, the most legionous and bloodthirsty of his kind ever seen in captivity, but at the same time the handsomest specimen of the black-maned African lion ever captured. Time and time again he has been doomed to death, but each and every time his magnificent majestic appearance has saved him. He will be seen here with the Bostock-Perall Nightly Midway Shows at the Elks Carnival, Owensboro, September 22-27.

Mother

"My mother was troubled with consumption for many years. At last she was given up to die. Then she tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was speedily cured."
—D. P. Jolly, Avoca, N. Y.

No matter how hard your cough or how long you have had it, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best thing you can take.
It's too risky to wait until you have consumption. If you are coughing today, get a bottle of Cherry Pectoral at once.

Three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1. All druggists.

A YOUNG WOMAN

Over Whose Shame Death Charitably Draws Its Mantle.

While passing the undertaker's establishment Wednesday morning, we observed the always sad spectacle of a coffin being prepared for somebody's dead. Inquiry brought to light a sad story of a young woman's misfortune, over which death had charitably drawn its dark impenetrable curtains.

Grace Galley, sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Hannah Reddish, died of childbirth at the residence of her mother, near Horton, Tuesday night, and was buried at Bethel burying ground Wednesday.

The girl was of that tender age when trust is too often tribute to a stronger will, and life too often the price of unbounded faith. To the writer the fullness of the fury of hell hursts upon society in incidents like this. If there is a sin for which agony, tears and blood will not buy a pardon, he commits it who dismantles the honor of a sweet young, trusting girl, and if there is a spectre, weird and dark, inspiring awe and fear, it should haunt him to the grave.

In this another warning tower is raised aloft along life's stormy coast, and yet trusting girls rush rashly on to wreck and ruin.

Declined to be Measured.

A representative of the American Express Company visited Boatner and Schiltzbaum, who are charged with attempting to rob that company of $28,000, at the jail here Monday and asked the privilege of making a Bertillon measurement of the prisoners.

Boatner commenced to address, but when he had removed one shoe, hesitated a moment, replaced it and remarked to the express man that he believed he would not be measured.

"You should allow the measurement to be taken," the express man persisted; "if you are innocent, as you say, it cannot hurt you."

"It can do me neither good nor harm," Boatner calmly replied, "but not being persuaded that you are here especially to help me, I don't care to go to the trouble of undressing." And he didn't.

Wanted for Seduction.

Deputy Sheriff John G. and Clarence Keown had quite a chase Sunday in pursuit of one Thomas Bennett, of Henderson county, who is wanted at Owensboro to answer a charge of seduction. Bennett was arrested and tried upon the same charge at Henderson, but as the offense was committed in Daviess county the prosecution was dismissed.

Later he was indicted in Daviess county and Deputy Sheriff Lawson of that county arrived in Hartford early Sunday morning and accompanied by the Deputy Sheriff mentioned, went in pursuit of Bennett, who was supposed to be located just below Centertown. Bennett, by some means, learned that he was being pursued and eluded the officers. After an all day search the officers concluded Bennett had crossed over to McLean county. The Ohio county deputies gave up the search at nightfall and returned home. Sheriff Lawson went to Livermore, and securing the assistance of the marshal of that town, and continued the pursuit. Sometime Sunday night the officers overtook Bennett, and Lawson took him to Owensboro where he gave bond and was released.

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to, but simply because they must.

They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, flatulency, heartburn and what not.

SEVEN PRISONERS

In the County Jail and all are Innocent and Cheerful.

There are now seven prisoners confined in the county jail. A. B. Schiltzbaum and J. H. Boatner, charged with attempting to rob the American Express Company of $28,000. Netter Gilttrap charged with the murder of Thomas Burton. Effie Bartlett, charged with infanticide. Alvin Baker, (colored,) charged with shooting and wounding, and Sullenger and Cunningham, two Letchfield negroes, charged with robbing Alfred Stewart.

We visited the prisoners yesterday morning and found them all in good health and as cheerful as the situation would warrant. They are each innocent, of course, as all prisoners are. Among several hundred prisoners we have interviewed in the past four years, only one has said he was guilty, and we plead with the court to turn him out before he contaminates the morals of a hall a score of innocent prisoners.

Schiltzbaum and Boatner are well dressed, wear collars, cuffs and ties, and present a very gentlemanly appearance. They talk like men who, whether guilty or innocent, have hopes for the future.

Alvin Baker is as cheerful as a June bug because the prosecuting witness in his case is away up north, and Baker wishes for nothing so much as the coming of the November term of the Circuit Court.

Sullenger and Cunningham are taking things easy and express anxiety for their examining trial which is set for Monday.

The woman, Effie Bartlett, occupies the corridor, and claims, like the rest of the prisoners, to be innocent of the charge against her. She is taking prison life philosophically, and expresses her anxiety for the approach of the November term of court when she can return to her husband and home in Daviess county.

ATTENTION! G. A. R.

The entire line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, the arena of war during four years.

Stealing railroad engines. A most picturesque and sensational episode of the Civil War.

In June, 1861, "Stonewall" Jackson under orders from General Johnson, proceeded to Martinsburg on the Baltimore & Ohio R. R. and burned a number of cars and engines. Then it occurred to one of his officers that the burning was a wanton waste, as the Confederate roads were in need of railroad equipment. Consequently the fires were put out, the locomotives dismantled and hauled by horses and men down the pike eighteen miles to Winchester, where they were again mounted on the railway tracks and hurried to Strasburg. Filled with the astounding success of their first enterprise, the Confederates continued to help themselves to other locomotives, steel rails, etc.—B. & O. property—every time they captured the road. Nineteen locomotives were thus pilfered in less than a year. They were mostly of the "camel-back" type—the last of which was but recently presented to the Purdue University at Lafayette, Ind., by the Baltimore & Ohio R. R. The brilliancy of this great feat in engineering was accredited to Col. Thomas R. Sharp, who was made master of transportation of the B. & O. at the close of the war.

When arranging your trip to Washington for the 35th Annual Encampment, keep the B. & O. in mind and go over the same route you traveled in '61.

Very low rates will be made from all points on the B. & O. S-W. ask your nearest Ticket Agent for particulars—or address.

A Communication.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. ### Hick's Weather for September.

Our storm diagram shows a strong combination of disturbing causes bearing on the opening days of September. From the 1st to the 4th falls the culmination of a regular Vulcan period, intensified by Mercury, Mars and Earth, with new moon on the 1st and Moon on the celestial equator on the 3rd. Warm weather generally will most likely prevail at the opening of the month, with falling barometer, growing humidity, and other storm indications spreading eastward from west and southwest.

On and touching the 2nd to 4th no one should be surprised by energetic storms of rain, wind and thunder. This is one of the autumnal equinoctial periods in which heavy equatorial storms are quite probable, in all southern waters, and around all coasts exposed to the ravages of these West India storms. No sane person will be alarmed at this cautious admonition. Nothing out of nature's ordinary and normal course is indicated; but nature's ordinary way, under existing astronomical conditions at this time, might make it dangerous for people in the sections named, who give no thought to the subject and pay no timely attention to indications.

If very low barometer and West India hurricanes reach our south coasts at this time they will either reach interior sections, and travel thence to the lakes and St. Lawrence causing high temperature and heavy storm of rain, wind and thunder over most of the country, or they will move up the Atlantic coast, causing danger in those regions and bringing high barometer, northerly winds and quite calm weather over all northern and central parts of the country. Timely and positive indications as to which way matters will turn, will appear to all who pay attention to the subject. The chances are that frost will occur northward about the 7th to the 9th.

The elements will react into storm conditions of more or less energy, progressing from west to east about the 7th to 9th. The center of the Mars period falls on the 11th, and on and about this date, it must be remembered, our globe reaches a crisis or maximum of magnetic and electric excitement, as a sole causing, many curious phenomena in earth and air. Electrical storms, earth currents, an-roral lights, seismic shivers and all similar manifestations are common and natural about this time. The Beef Trust and the President

It was announced a short time ago that the packers of the country would form a gigantic trust on the line of the steel trust, to be capitalized at five hundred millions of dollars.

Under the administration of President Roosevelt the formation of trusts is becoming more and more difficult. The officers of the United States are instructed to take steps to determine how far this trust would violate the law and prevent any violation if possible.

Following these instructions, the President has been discussing with the people in a calm, dispassionate, statesmanlike manner the evils of trusts and their remedies.

These speeches of the President have been criticised from two quarters. The Democrats have declared there was nothing in them; that they were mere platitudes; that the President was dealing in generalities; that nothing would come of his professed opposition to trusts.

One of the first results of the President's attitude has been the abandonment of the attempt to organize the packinghouse trust, as the following dispatch from Boston shows:
The combination of the big packing-house interests has been stopped suddenly. Schedules of property, which were being made in Boston and elsewhere in England, to be filed at Chicago as a basis for taking over all the independent concerns, were made up in a hurry and were all ready to send on Monday, that being the date when the valuation was to take place, but they did not go, and word was received from Chicago not to forward them.

We think the people will not be slow to perceive that the President's anti-trust campaign is proving effective all around. It is checking the tendency toward great combinations. It is arousing the opposition of the men who put selfish interests above the interests of the public, and it is drawing to the President increased confidence from the people.—Post.

Five hotels and 100 cottages open for boarders at reasonable rates. This resort is the site of the "Mountain Chautauqua" and summer schools, and of the great Chautauqua itself and is annually visited by thousands of persons who are strengthened in mind by the unexcelled facilities afforded for educational work and invigorated in body by the health giving influence for which this paradise of the mountains is famous.

Excursion tickets may be obtained over the B. & O. South-Western from June 1st to September 30th, good returning until October 31st 1902. Specially low rates during July and August for the Chautauqua and other gatherings. ## Artistic Monuments White Bronze.

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. Besides, it is very expensive. White Bronze is strictly everlasting. It cannot crumble with the action of frost. Moss-growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. Then why not investigate? It has been adopted for nearly one hundred public monuments and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. We have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave-cover. On receipt of a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and sample of White Bronze.

Yours truly,
D. J. RIGGOLD, Beaver Dam, Ky.
Agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., of Bridgeport, Conn.
